Commentaries quoted on TorahTalk

2015 · Rabbi Yerachmiel Seplowitz

In the past, whenever I quoted a commentary in one of my TorahTalks, I provided a link with information about that author. However, I have found that over time, many of these links have gone dead.

Naturally, it is impossible for me to constantly update every link on every post I have ever written. Therefore, I will now be sending all links to this page, which I will hopefully be able to keep current. (It will also allow me to provide more than one link to a given personality.)

Over the next several months I will be adding more links to this page. Please contact me at TorahTalk@gmail.com let me know if you come across a link that needs updating.
